

Hong Kong: Fan, Chan & Co. Limited

Firm profile

Fan, Chan & Co. Limited is a Certified Public Accountancy (CPA) practice. We have been established in Hong Kong since 1976 and currently provide audit, taxation and corporate services to over 1,000 clients in Hong Kong and mainland China, including listed and private companies. Many of these clients are foreign investors. As well as being very familiar with the trading environment in mainland China and Hong Kong, we regularly utilise the global resources of our Nexia International counterparts.

Collectively, the firm has over 90 staff, including 20 qualified professionals (CPAs and chartered secretaries) and 70 support professionals. We operate from two offices, one in Hong Kong and one in mainland China (Shenzhen). Some of the firm's workforce were formerly employed by the 'Big 4', which from a client perspective strengthens our offering even further. Above all, we are committed to provide the highest quality personal services to our clients at a reasonable fee.

Network

Fan, Chan & Co. Limited is a member firm of Nexia International, a worldwide network of independent accounting and consulting firms. Nexia International remains among the top 10 major global accounting networks with declared 2020 revenues of US$4.5bn in accordance with world survey published by International Accounting Bulletin.
